

Shared report header

Image review bench

Review each image occurrence in its own context. The repeated status symbols share identical image bytes and original descriptions.

Intake status

Status checkpoint

Release status

Status checkpoint

Summary marker

The floating marker is anchored to this summary paragraph

Internal review copy

Shared report context

This second section deliberately reuses the same header and footer parts. A shared header image is one stored occurrence, even when Word displays it on multiple pages.

